Form W-4 (2019)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2019 if both of the following apply.

- For 2018 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2019 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2019 expires February 17, 2020. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2019 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2019. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married filing jointly and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note: Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a child tax credit for each of your eligible children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year, and must have a valid social security number. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as a qualifying child who doesn't meet the age or social security number requirement for the child tax credit, or a qualifying relative. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Line G. Other credits. You may be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as tax credits for education (see Pub. 970). If you do so, your paycheck will be larger, but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account. Enter “-0-” on lines E and F if you use Worksheet 1-6.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income, such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero (“-0-”) on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/css/employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

INSTRUCTIONS

Who may use this form for 2019

Form WT-4A may be filed by an employee who determines that the amount withheld from his or her wages will be more than the employee's estimated net tax liability for 2019. Form WT-4A is an agreement between the employee and employer that a lesser amount will be withheld from the employee's wages than is provided for in the Wisconsin income tax withholding tables.

Before filing Form WT-4A, you should first determine if your withholding can be reduced a sufficient amount by claiming the maximum number of exemptions allowed on Form WT-4, "Employee's Wisconsin Withholding Exemption Certificate" (or on federal Form W-4, "Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate") which you completed when you started employment with your employer. If you are not claiming the maximum number of exemptions allowed, you may decrease your withholding by filing a new Form WT-4 (or federal Form W-4) with your employer and claiming an increased number of exemptions. If you are claiming the maximum number of exemptions allowed and your withholding is still more than your estimated net tax liability for 2019, you should file Form WT-4A.

Note: If you incurred no Wisconsin income tax liability for 2018 and anticipate no liability for 2019, you may claim complete exemption from Wisconsin income tax withholding on Form WT-4.

More than one employer

If you are employed by more than one employer, you may file an Employee Withholding Agreement (Form WT-4A) with each employer, provided that the total amount withheld by all employers approximates your anticipated income tax liability for 2019.

How to file

Complete both the WT-4A worksheet and the withholding agreement. Provide one copy of the worksheet and the withholding agreement to your employer. Mail another copy to the Department of Revenue within 10 days after the WT-4A is filed with your employer.

If you do not send a copy of Form WT-4A (including the worksheet) to the department within 10 days, the law provides for a $10 penalty to be imposed against you.

Expiration date of Form WT-4A

Form WT-4A will expire on April 30, 2020 for 2019 calendar year filers. Calendar year filers should place an "X" in the April 30, 2020 box on Form WT-4A. For fiscal year filers, the agreement will expire on the last day of the fourth month following the close of their fiscal year. Fiscal year filers should enter the appropriate expiration date in the space provided on Form WT-4A and place an "X" in the box.

How to amend your agreement

If you have already filed Form WT-4A and you have a substantial increase or decrease in your 2019 estimated tax liability, you should fill out a new Form WT-4A. Write the word "AMENDED" at the top of the new form. File one copy of the amended Form WT-4A with your employer and mail one copy to the Department of Revenue within 10 days after it is filed with your employer.

Revocation and penalties

If the department determines that the amount to be withheld per the Employee Withholding Agreement, Form WT-4A, is insufficient, the department may void the agreement by notification to the employer and employee.

If an employee enters into an agreement with the intent to defeat or evade the proper withholding of tax, the employee will be subject to a penalty equal to the difference between the amount required to be withheld and the amount actually withheld for the period that the agreement was in effect. Any employee who willfully supplies an employer with false or fraudulent information regarding an Employee Withholding Agreement with the intent to defeat or evade the proper withholding of tax may be imprisoned not more than 6 months, or fined not more than $500 plus the cost of prosecution, or both.

Completing the worksheet for the Employee Withholding Agreement

Line 2. Refer to the Wisconsin income reported on line 13 of Form 1, line 12 of Form 1A, line 1 of Form WI-Z or line 32 of Form 1NPR of your Wisconsin income tax return. Your 2019 Wisconsin estimated income should be computed in the same manner as you computed your 2018 Wisconsin income, taking into account any changes you expect to occur in 2019.

Line 3. Your exemptions are $700 for yourself, $700 for your spouse if filing a joint return, and $700 for each dependent. Add $250 to the total if you are 65 years of age or over and, add $250 if your spouse is 65 years of age or over. (Exception: If you are claimed as a dependent on someone else's return, you do not qualify for an exemption.) Nonresidents and part-year residents prorate the standard deduction as follows: (1) Figure your standard deduction using your federal adjusted gross income instead of your Wisconsin income, and (2) prorate using the ratio of Wisconsin income to federal adjusted gross income. Exemptions must also be prorated using the same ratio.

Line 6. Refer to a 2018 Wisconsin Form 1, Form 1A, Form WI-Z, or Form 1NPR.

EMPLOYEE INSTRUCTIONS:

• WHO MUST FILE:

Every Employee is required to file a completed Form WT-4 with each of his or her employers unless the Employee claims the same number of withholding exemptions for Wisconsin withholding tax purpose as for federal withholding tax purpose. Form WT-4 (or federal Form W-4 if a Form WT-4 is not filed) will be used by your employer to determine the amount of Wisconsin income tax to be withheld from your paychecks. If you have more than one employer, you should claim a smaller number or no exemptions on each Form WT-4 filed with employers other than your principal employer so that the total amount withheld will be closer to your actual income tax liability.

Your employer may also require you to complete this form to report your hiring to the Department of Workforce Development.

You may file a new Form WT-4 any time you wish to change the amount of withholding from your paychecks, providing the number of exemptions you claim does not exceed the number you are entitled to claim.

• UNDER WITHHOLDING:

If sufficient tax is not withheld from your wages, you may incur additional interest charges under the tax laws. In general, 90% of the net tax shown on your income tax return should be withheld.

• OVER WITHHOLDING:

If you are using Form WT-4 to claim the maximum number of exemptions to which you are entitled and your withholding exceeds your expected income tax liability, you may use Form WT-4A to minimize the over withholding.

• WHEN TO FILE IF YOUR EXEMPTIONS CHANGE:

You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES.

You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions INCREASES.

WT-4 Instructions – Provide your information in the employee section.

• LINE 1:

(a)-(c) Number of exemptions – Do not claim more than the correct number of exemptions. If you expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld if you claim every exemption to which you are entitled, you may increase your withholding by claiming a smaller number of exemptions on lines 1(a)-(c) or you may enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld (see instruction for line 2).

(c) Dependents – Those persons who qualify as your dependents for federal income tax purposes may also be claimed as dependents for Wisconsin purposes. The term "dependents" does not include you or your spouse. Indicate the number of dependents that you are claiming in the space provided.

• LINE 2:

Additional withholding – If you have claimed "zero" exemptions on line 1, but still expect to have a balance due on your tax return for the year, you may wish to request your employer to withhold an additional amount of tax for each pay period. If your employer agrees to this additional withholding, enter the additional amount you want deducted from each of your paychecks on line 2.

• LINE 3:

Exemption from withholding – You may claim exemption from withholding of Wisconsin income tax if you had no liability for income tax for last year, and you expect to incur no liability for income tax for this year. You may not claim exemption if your return shows tax liability before the allowance of any credit for income tax withheld. If you are exempt, your employer will not withhold Wisconsin income tax from your wages.

You must revoke this exemption (1) within 10 days from the time you expect to incur income tax liability for the year or (2) on or before December 1 if you expect to incur Wisconsin income tax liabilities for the next year. If you want to stop or are required to revoke this exemption, you must file a new Form WT-4 with your employer showing the number of withholding exemptions you are entitled to claim. This certificate for exemption from withholding will expire on April 30 of next year unless a new Form WT-4 is filed before that date.
